

Royal Caribbean Cruise Line's 1,610-passenger NORDIC EMPRESS, the first vessel designed specifically for three- and four-night cruises, will feature a nine-deck "Centrum," a tri-level casino and bi-level dining room, indoor/outdoor cafe, disco and show lounge.

"Casino Royale" aboard Royal Caribbean Cruise Line's NORDIC EMPRESS will feature a three-level casino with two American roulette and two craps tables, nine blackjack tables plus 200 slot machines. The 1,610-passenger cruise ship will begin sailing in May 1990 from Miami on three- and four-night Bahamas cruises.

NORDIC EMPRESS' stunning nine-deck "Centrum" will feature a multi-level fountain which falls in a controlled cascade from one level to another. The 1,610-passenger Royal Caribbean Cruise Line ship, will begin sailing from Miami to the Bahamas in May 1990.

The elegant two-tier dining room aboard Royal Caribbean Cruise Line's NORDIC EMPRESS has winding staircases and a wall of windows spanning two decks for a 180 degree view. The 1,610-passenger cruise ship will begin three- and four-night cruises from Miami to the Bahamas on May 14, 1990.